Care Quality Commission (CQC)

In June 2018, Spire Nottingham Hospital was awarded an overall rating of 'Outstanding' by the Care Quality Commission (CQC).

A team of CQC inspectors visited the hospital as part of their ongoing inspection programme.

The team worked tirelessly both through the build phase and during the first year of opening to ensure we delivered a hospital that truly has patient centred care at the heart of everything we do.

Outstanding is an incredible achievement for any hospital, but we are particularly proud to achieve this at our first inspection.
