

Consultant breast surgeon at Spire Alexandra Hospital awarded for outstanding patient care from patient reviews

Mr Abdul Kasem, Consultant oncoplastic and cosmetic breast surgeon, has been awarded a Certificate of Excellence for outstanding patient care from an independent review site.

Mr Abdul Kasem, consultant oncoplastic, reconstructive, aesthetic and cosmetic breast surgeon, who has practiced at Spire Alexandra Hospital since 2011, has been awarded the Certificate of Excellence 2023 by independent review site IWantGreatCare.

With over 6.4 million detailed patient reviews the site is one of the largest sources of healthcare feedback in the world. Today, IWantGreatCare assesses and recognises leading clinicians and providers in the UK who are most highly and consistently recommended by their patients.

The Certificate of Excellence 2023 award presented to Mr Kasem highlights the dedication and care he delivers to his patients.

Mr Kasem said, "It is my honour to look after our patients with the best and safest care. I am proud to work with and to be a member of the excellent and amazing team at Spire Alexandra Hospital."

Lee Aldridge, Hospital Director at Spire Alexandra Hospital added, "We are proud that Mr Kasem has been awarded the Certificate of Excellence 2023. He is an excellent surgeon who provides exemplary care to his patients, which is reflected in the positive patient feedback that we regularly receive regarding his clinical practice."

Jon Twinn, Managing Director of IWantGreatCare commented, "It is vital that the patient voice is at the heart of healthcare decision making and quality improvement and I am delighted that the IWantGreatCare platform is able to provide a way for the NHS and independent sector to be formally recognised by the people they treat.

More and more patients across the UK are reviewing their care every month. When patients see an IWantGreatCare Certificate of Excellence, they can be confident they will be receiving truly great care from one of the country's very best."

Recent patient feedback from patients under the care of Mr Kasem include, "Mr Kasem was amazing, he has done an even better job than I could've ever imagined. He made me feel so comfortable during the whole process. He was brilliant and I would recommend him to anyone and everyone!"
